BERLIN

Pioneer of the bootleg mashup movement and creator / DJ of the Bootie Mashup party brand

- For over 15 years, Adriana A has been the creator, producer, promoter, and resident DJ of the Bootie Mashup brand, becoming a well-oiled mashup machine.
- She plays for huge crowds every weekend -- as well as livestreaming on Twitch for a worldwide audience -- with an unparalleled collection of 100% genre-busting bootleg mashups.
- The Bootie Mashup events she produces in San Francisco, Los Angeles, New York City, and Seattle draw hundreds each week, with creative themes always keeping things fresh.
- As a tireless mashup evangelist, she's played all over the world, bringing the signature Bootie Mashup sound to five different continents.
- A captivating singer as well as a DJ, Adriana A leads crowds into confetti explosions of mashup sing-alongs ... and also sings mashups live, throwing in a few surprise performances throughout the night.
- Nailing that sweet spot between current pop hits and classic songs that press the nostalgia button, the dance floor – or livestream chat room – becomes as mashed-up as the music.
- For 12 years in a row, Bootie has won awards such as “Best Club Night,” “Best Promoter,” and “Best DJ” from multiple media outlets in California.
- Her annual “Best of Bootie Mashup” mixtapes are internet sensations each year, and her monthly Bootie Mashup Top 10 MP3 blog is anxiously downloaded not just by fans ... but by other DJs as well!
- As an out-and-proud trans performer, Adriana A prides herself on bridging the gap between the mainstream and alternative, making everyone feel welcome at the party!
